

Review – Populaire

Good – 34	OK – 2
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• That was a quirky film but very enjoyable. They did well with the old cars used in several scenes.</li><li>• This was an interesting throwback with all the attitudes and style of the 50s. I can see why the Mad Men comparison was made.</li><li>• Light and fluffy as described but there was also a gentle satire of the awful fashions and manners of that period. Good evening's entertainment.</li><li>• It was worth the wait so I rate it good. It took a while to get going but once it did it was entertaining and amusing. I thought it would have benefitted from being 20 mins shorter as the pace dropped a few times.</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Light and amusing which is good from time to time but I couldn't bear too much froth too often. Useful snippets of French.</li><li>• A cheerful film but</li></ul>

- As Ian said some light relief on a winter's night!
- I did feel sorry for the person trying to sort it out, it's very annoying and frustrating when things go pear shaped. Please pass on my sympathy.
My guest and I thoroughly enjoyed the film. It was light-hearted, tongue in cheek and just the job for a miserable January evening. An excellent choice.
- Very engaging film and who knew that speed typing could be so enthralling!
- We were a party of 6 and all thoroughly enjoyed the film last night - a good choice! Thanks for collating this.
- We thoroughly enjoyed the film and the delay was just one of those frustrating things which happen from time to time when technology, with a mind of its own, is involved! The film was a very accurate portrayal of life in the 50s -fashion, hairdos, decor, etc.
- Excellent - great fun, if implausible.
- Superbe.
- Thoroughly enjoyed this cheerful film.
- Happy ending, romance. What more could you ask for a dull January?
- The delay in starting was worth the waiting. A lovely film to start the year with.
- Enjoyed this romantic comedy, fascinating that she learnt to type from scratch. Good film with a really feel good factor. Thanks for your hard work.
- Thank the operator for their persistence rewarded with success.
- Perfect antidote to a grey January day.
- We all really enjoyed the film and found it very entertaining.
- We both really enjoyed the film and at first take thought that the voice over was part of the film as it was labelled as a comedy. The whole debacle would make a good comedy sketch. Anyway, both me and my husband really enjoyed the light-hearted film. I particularly love films based in the 50s era as I love the style, fashion and music. Many thanks for showing as we wouldn't choose to watch a foreign film normally.
- Lighthearted but a bit too long.
- Quirky and although predictable, it was a fun film for a cold January night (with added entertainment at the beginning!)

nothing outstanding. I got a bit bored with the speed typing competitions.