

Review – The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society

Good – 35	OK – 4
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• I enjoyed the film yesterday afternoon very much. Nice feel good story and nice to see some familiar faces in the cast. Just the right thing for a winter's afternoon thank you.• It was indeed a 'feel good' movie, ideal for a winter Sunday afternoon. Quite a slim plot and predictable love-story, but none the worse for that given the good performances and beautiful landscape (even tho' not Guernsey!).• Very enjoyable.• Excellent-kept our interest to the end. Audible dialogue without constant	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Bit predictable.• A bit cosy for my taste, but ideal for Sunday matinee in January. So definitely ok.• I thought that the film was better than I expected and enjoyed it, though I was somewhat irritated by the geographical and swearing and you could actually see what was happening.

- I didn't attend the film yesterday. However, I saw it last year, and read the book. So, can I say I thought it was good.
- Brilliant! Thought provoking, educational, moving, humorous, likeable characters, fab scenery, all round enjoyable.
- We both thought the film good, it kept fairly close to the book and our second viewing was just as enjoyable.
- Excellent. A real 'feel - good ' film. Most enjoyable. Well done!
- A good story heart-warmingly well told with beautiful scenery, appropriate music and bird song. The film fitted in well with mood of afternoon following a very positive premeeting of St George's Guildhall Trust, and a nod to holocaust memorial day. Enjoyed the visit to Pizza Express, even if it did take 90 minutes for the food to materialise, we were in good company. Many thanks all round to organisers.
- Lovely feel good film with some substance. Perfect choice for matinee.
- A real tear-jerker, which we both enjoyed.
- Good (very good!)
- Enjoyable entertainment.
- A lovely film and it had just the sort of 'feel good' factor we need. More of these please.
- Enjoyed as much as first time I saw it last year.
- It took us a while to engage with the characters but once we were on the island the plot, the quality of the actors/acting, the superb filming and the intelligent portrayal of the trials suffered the inhabitants of an occupied territory was excellent.
- The three of us thought it was good, thank you for showing it.
- This was the second time we had seen it, and we thoroughly enjoyed it again.
- Excellent. Thank you yet again for a very good choice of film.
