

Review – The Post

Good – 24	OK – 3	Poor – 1
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>We were both enthralled by this film. It needs a second viewing to appreciate all the links and characters. Interesting, captivating and alarming in light of current events. So pleased we were able to see it.</li> <li>Once you tuned in to the mumbled accents, it became compelling. Excellent performances from all the cast. The pointed comments about the law being for the governed, not the government were</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Very timely and interesting topic, but didn't think the film merited oscar nomination for best picture. Some difficulty in hearing dialogue particularly in the first 10</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Not sure how to rate the film last night. I didn't like, it wasn't my thing. I wasn't able to follow the story as I know nothing of the</li> </ul>

relevant for today. Liked the Watergate ending. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• And it gets even better on the second viewing.</li> <li>• We thoroughly enjoyed The Post.</li> <li>• We both enjoyed the film, excellent acting, interesting to see Tom Hanks and Meryl Streep working together.</li> <li>• Intriguing story which we didn't altogether remember from real life. Great acting. Liked watching the vintage presses 'roll', apparently a set-up from 1970's England.</li> <li>• We all enjoyed the film although the start was a little confusing, (too many suits) but after that it was an absorbing thoroughly enjoyable film.</li> <li>• We were drawn into the story, after at first feeling uncertain about some of the characters.</li> <li>• We all thought it was good. It was difficult to hear, but our guest made the same comment the first time she saw it at a different venue.</li> <li>• Complex story excellently presented and acted. Authentic old technology in the print room much enjoyed. A wonderful film, thank you for showing it.</li> <li>• Not really my kind of film but it was interesting to find out how the top people do things to save face and don't care about the consequences on other peoples lives. Same as WW1 over here. I'm glad your woman was brave enough to take that decision, hats off to her.</li> </ul>	minutes or so. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Worthy and timely of course - but, as entertainment, mono-tonal.</li> <li>• Got a bit confused in the first half with all the different characters. But enjoyed the second half, particularly the scenes of newspaper production in those days – and the suspense.</li> </ul>	Vietnam war or the American press.
---	--	---