

Review – Top Hat

Good – 27	OK – 2
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A most delightful film. We enjoyed every moment. What a joy for a Sunday afternoon. Thank you.• A nice Sunday afternoon film. Amazing that it is 80 years old. Thank you for screening it and for organising the meal at The Bank House• Bliss! It was excellent. So enjoyable to be entertained in a light-hearted but very stylish manner. It was perfect for the occasion and with an excellent supper afterwards it made for a most enjoyable outing.• Thoroughly enjoyable - the dancing made up for the 'corny' script. No-one has come near Astaire and Rogers since then.• Much funnier than I expected. Particularly liked Madge's one liners. Great songs and dancing make up for hokey plot. So, given it is 80 years old, pretty good.• A bit of fun for a Sunday afternoon. Fred Astaire's dancing is always a delight. The music of course is classic.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• It was of its age. Were amused at the depiction of the Grand Canal and the gondolas – thought at first that it was a feature of the hotel, but no!

| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• We both enjoyed Top Hat. A very pleasant way to spend a damp afternoon.• Good choice. Frivolous, farcical & fun. Thank you.• Excellent - tremendous fun. I couldn't decide if it was speeded up in some of the fantastic dances, or a slightly dodgy film (the music wasn't, but some of the moves looked supersonic to me).• A very enjoyable afternoon with a tasty supper afterwards.• The film was excellent. Reflected an era of filmmaking which has now sadly passed. The humour was timeless. Very good.• Better than good. Magic!• I loved it!! What amazing dresses, sets and synchronised dancing. Thank you so much for showing it!• Thoroughly entertaining and enjoyable. Amazing dancing and what a pleasure to have such clarity of speech, presumably made before mumbling was invented. The meal was a very sociable event.• Great choice for a Sunday matinee. While we would only rate the film as OK, we enjoyed its froth and fun and thought it was a really good choice as light entertainment for a gloomy Sunday afternoon.• Enjoyed the film more than I expected as musicals are not usually my thing. Thanks for a good choice. Meal at the Bank House good and convivial company!• We both enjoyed it for the music and artistry of the dancing. We found the quality of the remastered (?) film difficult to focus on at first. The matinee sessions with supper afterwards are very enjoyable. So many thanks to the organisers.• We really enjoyed Top Hat, a bit stilted as expected in the acting but dancing absolutely spectacular. Strictly come Dancing not a patch on this! Lovely to watch on a winter's afternoon. | |
