

Review – Chocolat

Good – 16	OK – 1
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I had forgotten how much I enjoyed this film. • I wonder how many of the audience, on arriving home, reached for the chocolate to maintain the feel good, and gentle warmth of the film! • 👍 • Thoroughly enjoyed it. A change to have such a light-hearted film. Some good French style jazz too. • I enjoyed it. Good contrast between the village buildings and villagers, and the sumptuous Chocolate shop. Made me feel hungry. Thank you for the free chocolates. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some old stereotypes there, but some good acting.

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• I enjoyed the film very much.• We both really enjoyed the film and the chocolate! Thanks.• Maybe not a great film, but it is quite a lot of fun, and Alfred Molina does well to make something of his 'baddie' role. A film to make you feel good.• We thought the film was really good, thank you. A really uplifting, feel good film with an excellent cast.• Humane, hopeful - well put together with charm.• Great choice. Was convinced the chocolatier was going to leave. But she stayed! Applause all round!• Excellent; great acting, directing, scenery - based, of course, on Joanne Harris' enchanting novel. | |
|---|--|