

Review – Lady Bird

| Good – 20 | OK – 6 | Poor – 1 |
|---|---|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I thought the film last night was good. The chocolate cake was lovely too. Second time we have enjoyed this film. Real family with all its stresses, but one that is kind, tolerant and above all loving. Good the way Ladybird gradually learns that their values are | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Not one I would recommend. It was better than I thought it might be and I veered between | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I could not empathise with the main character at all and the ending felt too abrupt, almost like an |

| | | |
|---|---|----------------------|
| the ones worth having. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We both enjoyed it. Great performance from Saoirse Ronan and from the actors playing her mother and best friend. A gentle film about rebellious adolescence and growing up. • We thought the film was excellent. My friend had been to a Catholic high school and felt it really reflected her positive experiences with the staff. The family relationships were generally convincing, as was the turmoil of desperately wanting to fit in and choosing the wrong people to impress! An excellent choice. • We both really enjoyed this film. Great performance by Saoirse Ronan. Brilliant that the club has kept going for 8 years - many thanks to the committee members and others who have kept it going over the years. • Good film, although didn't enjoy it over much but it was very funny in parts and a very good story. • Loved this film. Made me think of my youth. We do not appreciate our parents until a sudden epiphany happens when we eventually grow up. All the cast were excellent & Sacramento looks a nice place. I guess it is another example of not appreciating what you have. We all want to experience new places but we then realise that our home town is not as bad as we thought. • I enjoyed the film- the actors were all brilliant in portraying their characters and the relationships between them, and the angst that was experienced by teenagers prior to the advent of social media. My guest liked it too, and thought the 3 actors who | OK and good. The decision to go with OK was the lack of a decent story and most of it was so predictable. On the good side it made us all laugh several times and I am glad that I came along to watch it. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Disappointed. Scenes disjointed. At times difficulty hearing dialogue. • I did have trouble deciphering the American dialogue and unable to catch the funny bits. However it was very reminiscent of mother daughter relationships and recently with my daughter in law and her daughter who has just gone off to uni. I found it a little | afterthought. |
|---|---|----------------------|

| | | |
|--|---|--|
| played the parents and Lady Bird were particularly good. Thank you for showing it. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Bit mumbly and hard to understand at times though. | fragmented but the acting from the mother and daughter was good. | |
|--|---|--|