

Review – Swimming with Men

Good – 37	OK – 2	Poor – 1
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Solid British comedy, a perfect antidote to miserable British weather outside! • Lovely film. Lots of fun! • It was a bit predictable and a story that has been done before, but the acting was good and the humour gentle. • Very good. Funny, gentle humour with no bad language or tragedy to endure. Relaxing and entertaining. The three of us thoroughly enjoyed it, thank you. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong cast but predictable storyline. Light weight humour. A sort of Full Monty but wetter! But worth showing as I think a lot of 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Disappointing. I was bored with all that swimming! And the incidental music was dreadful.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Very funny. • Very good. Really good story and well acted. Nice to see so many familiar faces in the cast. • A delightfully uplifting film dealing with men's mental health in a very sensitive way. Very entertaining too. • A gentle film which made us laugh which was wonderful in this awful wet weather. It reminded me of Cool Runnings. • We laughed, escaped the rain for a bit. • Good entertainment. • Enjoyed this film as much on my second viewing. So nice to see people coming away smiling. • I loved it, as it was humorous and a wonderful subject. • We thought it a light-hearted film, worthy of a few chuckles with an underlying message not to take oneself too seriously and emphasising the importance of loyalty in our relationships with family and friends. It was well cast and the pace cleverly reflected that of the synchronised swimming. • Very good - we really enjoyed this amusing tale. Shall watch it again some time. • Very good, funny. • It was great to hear everyone laughing. • We both thought it was a great film ! All the parts were acted really well and we thoroughly enjoyed it. Thank you for showing it. • Nothing too deep really explored, but it was lots of fun, and just what was needed amidst all the awful weather. • A ligh- hearted adventure that perhaps came over more amusing 	people really liked it. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Not intellectually challenging, but not meant to be. Just a piece of 'good fun'. Could not help thinking of 'The Full Monty' while watching this film. • than it actually was, due to it being an antidote to ghastly world politics!

- Good? It was brilliant! A real feel-good film that made us laugh out loud. Especially the sausage in the pool, what goes in the pool stays in the pool. Cheered us up no end after a difficult week. Thanks for that.
- I thought it was a feel good film and worth seeing on a dull day.
- This was an enjoyable film although very much a formula (which does work). The film 'Stepping out' had a similar theme. The underwater shots were very good.
- Good choice. Fascinating & poignant. A serious topic told with humour.
- Gentle, feel good movie, but with enough content to make one think. Enjoyed spotting the references and similarities to other films.
