

Review – White Christmas

Good – 18	OK – 3
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• A bit of Festive Fare to brighten the covid gloom!</li><li>• Many thanks for the wine and mince pies. Very nice start to an enjoyable evening.</li><li>• First viewing of this for me and I really enjoyed it. Really good production, dancing, singing and music. It brought a tear to my eye which is all I ask from a corny old film!</li><li>• We vote good- loved it!! Thank you so much for showing it!</li><li>• Puts 'Strictly' to shame! Amazing choreography and dancing, forget the plot!</li><li>• Perfect choice.</li><li>• Excellent. Just the sort of film to lift our flagging spirits. Great sound and picture quality; and the dancing in those high heels!!</li><li>• Very good and just right for the season. Irving Berlin was a master of his craft.</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Exactly as expected. Very much of its time, too schmalzy for today's taste - and ours really. But it was a fun Christmas evening with enjoyable mince pies and mulled wine, and Danny Kaye is always a pleasure to</li></ul>

- I enjoyed it, as it got us, into a Christmas singing mood. Thank you for the mulled wine, Stollen, and mince pies.
- I thought the film was good on Thursday. I hadn't seen it before. Goodness what tiny waists those ladies had. Lovely get together before the film. Thank you.
- Truly superb dance numbers (perhaps less a couple?), a passable story (perhaps less sentiment?), and many tunes (perhaps less brassy band?) - deserved fame, just a little trimming now. ((P.S. The club has managed very well through this horrid period - Felicity and I feel guilty we can't link names and faces of the team doing it all.))
- Old-fashioned feel-good entertainment. Certainly helped getting me into the Christmas spirit!
- We enjoyed the movie. Thought we had seen it before but it turns out we had not. not a great fan of musicals but have to admit I liked the dancing and costumes.
- Perfect entertainment for Christmas, thank you.

watch. Many thanks to the organisers.

- Entertaining, great dancing, just what we expected but it didn't really add up to much.
