<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ultimately uplifting, enjoyable film with great acting and singing. Perfect for miserable winter evening. • Not an easy watch, but compelling. Vast improvement on the last offering. • Really enjoyed this film, especially the music of which I am a big fan. Although the plot was a bit predictable I thought the acting was good and you can't beat a happy ending! 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I enjoyed the music but found the plot a little tedious, not helped by the Scottish accents which were indecipherable at times. • A found it stressful - 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Subtitles in future please for these accents. If I had understood the dialogue, I might have marked it "Good". Is my

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Excellent performances by the leads. Jessie Buckley really captures Rose Lynn's strengths and weaknesses. You want her to do well. • Brilliant! Life affirming. • I thought it was good....showed realism...but not quite the ending that I expected. Quite a modern moral tale really. • A very enjoyable film. Thank you. • Very good. • Very good. Uplifting, yet poignant. Brilliant acting from the x3 leading ladies, and the children. Also the songs were great and well-performed. Thank you, committee, for a good choice. • Excellent choice – we were doubtful whether we would enjoy a probably miserable film but we did – especially the lovely voice of Rose. Great ending also. • Much better than I expected, and wonderfully believable characters. • I really enjoyed this film. Well acted by all. • I thought it was rather sentimental for my taste, and I really don't like country music, but the film was rescued by a fine performance from Jessie Buckley, and therefore I rate it good. • I'm not a country music fan but enjoyed it never the less. Good story. • That girl can sing! A sad but realistic story although I think in real life she would not have adapted so well on coming out of 	(??), I liked the music somewhat, but found the story annoying, and too obvious. Julie Walters perfect of course. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I suppose I should give it an 'ok' but I really didn't like it! Not my cup of tea! 	problem with my ears, the sound system or the film? prison, or had it so easy, but it worked for the film. Julie Walters was great as usual

- Although a little formulaic, it was well acted especially by Jessie Buckley and she sang all the songs.
- Enjoyed the movie but made me cry! Could we have more tissues available during similar films? And perhaps an area where manly tears can be shed.
- Good feel good film, if not great cinema. Notable for having three excellent performances by three excellent actors (actresses!) Hardly a speaking role for men.
- We enjoyed the film, particularly the very fine acting of Rose and her mother. A strong story line which at times touched our hearts and made our feelings 'wobble'. Thank you for showing this film.
- A wild 'Country' child come back to ma & her kids. She done good.
